Swiss Finance & Property Ltd reinforces its indirect real estate investment team

- Robert Sekula appointed to be Senior Portfolio Manager at SFP Ltd from 1 September 2021
- Ongoing development of expertise and capacity in portfolio management

Swiss Finance & Property Ltd is reinforcing its indirect real estate investment team and gaining a recognised portfolio management expert with an excellent track record in the person of Robert Sekula.

Swiss Finance & Property Ltd (SFP) is expanding its indirect real estate investment team with the addition of Robert Sekula. From autumn 2021, he will be responsible for the indirect mandates and funds managed by the SFP teams as Senior Portfolio Manager. Robert Sekula is a Financial Risk Manager (FRM), CIIA and CIWM, and has an MAS in Real Estate Management from the Institute of Financial Services Zug (IFZ). As a fund manager for listed real estate investments, he has built up a holistic real estate services system in recent years.

"Gaining a personality like Robert marks another step forward for SFP," said Nicolas Di Maggio, Head Asset Management Indirect Investments and Co-CEO of SFP. With more than 25 years of experience at Zürcher Kantonalbank, Robert Sekula is a recognised expert with an excellent track record who has also been involved in numerous developments in the field of ESG. "With our licensing by FINMA as a securities firm, this also shows that we are continuing to establish ourselves as a benchmark player for the entire range of services relating to real estate investments," Di Maggio concluded.
