Swiss Finance & Property Group expands its sales activities to Germany

- Limited company (GmbH) established in Frankfurt am Main, Germany
- Lars Albert appointed as the new company's Managing Director

The Swiss Finance & Property Group (SFP Group) is expanding into Germany. The group has set up a limited company in Germany with its registered office in Frankfurt am Main and Lars Albert as the local Managing Director.

The SFP Group is opening its first subsidiary in another European country. The Swiss real estate experts from Zurich are expanding into the German market and establishing a limited company. The new company's offices are situated in a central location in Frankfurt am Main's West End. Lars Albert has been appointed as Managing Director.

Lars has more than 20 years of experience in asset management, some of which were spent working in other countries. Based in Frankfurt am Main and London, he mainly worked with institutional investors. In addition to working for SEB Asset Management, other important milestones in his career include senior positions at Henderson Global Investors and Barings. His sales work focused on the DACH region in particular. The qualified banker and business studies graduate most recently set up a sales organisation for continental Europe at Berenberg Asset Management.

"We are consistently pursuing our strategy of expansion in the DACH region with Lars Albert and are happy to have such an experienced colleague on board," said Urs Kunz, Head Client Relationship Management & Marketing at Swiss Finance & Property Ltd.
